

FAQ's For Chatbot

Q1. Do you deal with scholarships?

We don't deal with fully funded or partially funded scholarships. Although, student can get scholarship upto 30% according to their percentage in the last degree.

Q2. What is Visa Ratio of Relevant Country like UK, USA, Australia, and Canada?

Visa ratio of UK is very high but other countries i.e; USA, Australia and Canada are low respectively if student have low grades. Although, it depends on students profile.

Q3. What is a student study visa and who is eligible?

Which types of study visas are available (e.g., F-1 for the USA, Tier 4 for the UK, etc.)?

How do I apply for a study visa from Pakistan?

What are the minimum eligibility criteria for a student visa?

What documents are required to support my study visa application?

Do I need to submit my academic transcripts and certificates with my application?

Yes, you have to submit your academic transcripts and certificates with your application.

What is an I-20 (or CAS) form and how do I obtain it from my university?

How do I pay the SEVIS or visa processing fees and what are the current fees?

What financial documents do I need to prove that I can cover tuition and living expenses?

You only need bank statement & Maintenance Letter from the bank in which you have managed your amount for past few months or days.

How much money should be in my bank account for a successful application?

Amount of money for bank statement depends on the country in which you are applying. Every country have different requirements for bank statements.

Do I need to take an English proficiency test like IELTS or TOEFL?

It depends on your previous grades and previous institute. You can apply on Medium of Instruction (MOI) Letter if it is acceptable. Otherwise, you have to take relevant English Proficiency Test.

How long does the visa processing take from application submission to approval?

What is the difference between a paper-based and an online visa application?

How do I schedule and prepare for my visa interview?

What are the most common questions asked during the visa interview?

What are the typical reasons for student visa rejections?

If my visa is rejected, can I reapply immediately, and what should I do differently?

Can I work while studying on a student visa, and are there any restrictions?

Yes, you can work while studying on student visa. 20 Hours work is allowed in UK and 40 Hours of work is allowed in Europe.

Is it possible to transfer my visa if I change my course or university?

What should I do if there are delays or additional document requests from the embassy?

Do you Apply for E-Sol Visa

Can I work While Studying?

Do you apply for spouse visa?

Does applicant and Spouse can travel together?

What are job opportunities there?

Do You manage bank statement? What is Interest rate on it?

Can apply without passport?

Any Scholarships available?

What is visa ratio of relevant country?

Which bank account can be opened for a bank statement

Are you dealing with a work visa?

How do I apply for a study visa from another country like Dubai, Saudia Arabia, or Oman?